

Numbers in adjacent circles need to add up to a square number, as in the example below.

Fill in the circles using the numbers 1 to 15, once each. The first two have been done for you.

Fill in the squares to show the square numbers they add up to in each case.